Prosecution Links Mrs. Hall With Crime in Direct Manner.

[By Universal Service.] NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 10.—Finger prints of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the unemotional widow of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, who was slain with his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, will be demanded by those investigating the mystery. This was announced tonight at a time it was asserted that "decisive action may be expected soon."

week. Justice Parker will not return until November 12. One official discussing the evidence in Mr. Mott's possession said tonight: "Originated in One Family." "Everything that led up to it originated in one family. Mr. Mott is convinced of this. He has sufficient evidence to secure indictments. He wants, however, to await this case so that convictions will follow."

MERCHANT NOW EATS ANYTHING ON TABLE

[By the help of Tanlac I have overcome a case of nervous indigestion I had suffered from for ten or twelve years. In the emphatic statement of Norman W. Brown, well-known wall paper and paint dealer, of 213 North Cedar Street, Charlotte, N. C. "My stomach was always out of fix and everything disagreed with me. I was troubled with heartburn and dizziness and at times there was a pressure of gas around my heart that almost cut off my breath. "Since taking Tanlac my digestion is fine. My appetite is a wonder, and I eat just anything I want. In fact, my stomach acts and feels just like a new one, and my nerves are as steady as a die. To put it all in a few words, I am just the same as a new man. It is a pleasure for me to tell my friends about Tanlac."
